Bob, this request for documents to be declassified that we don't have crossed my desk today and I thought I would get it to you in advance of tomorrow's meeting.

Looking forward to meeting you, and thanks—Victoria

1) A memo from Rumsfeld to the president dated Oct. 10, 2006, with the following subject line: "A New Construct for Iraq: Establish and arrange a plan for Iraq, with benchmarks, to turn over to the Iraqis responsibility for Governance, Economic Progress and Security, and thereby permit a reduction of Coalition Forces."

2) A paper from Rumsfeld to the president dated Dec. 8, 2006, and titled "Iraq Policy: A New Phase."

Subject: OSD MDR Case 09-M-0047

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed two documents titled Iraq Policy: Proposal for the New Phase dated December 7-8, 2006 in the above referenced case in consultation with the Joint Staff (JS), the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSDP), and the National Security Council (NSC). JS and NSC have no objection to declassification. However, JS excised information protected under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5) and NSC protected the entire documents under FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5). OUSDP has no objection to declassification in part. OSD information is still properly classified under Executive Order 13526, section 1.4(a),(b), and (d) and is also protected under FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(2).

- Section 1.4(a) protects information that could be expected to reveal military plans, weapons systems, or operations.
- Section 1.4(b) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign government information.
- Section 1.4(d) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources.
- 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(2) protects information which would significantly increase the risk of circumvention of the agency's rules and practices by providing insight into current security measures for sensitive programs.
- 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(5) authorizes the Executive Branch to withhold information involving certain inter- and intra-agency communications protected by the deliberative process privilege.

OSD stands as an appellate authority and will coordinate any appeals regarding this case. A written appeal must be filed within 60 days explaining the rationale for reversal of the decision. Reference should be made to OSD MDR Case 09-M-0047. Letters of appeal should be sent to the following address:

Bob, Keith and I are trying to track down a document titled "A Bold Shift in Iraq Policy" from late Nov.-early Dec. 2006 that was put together by ASD Peter Rodman and the Joint Staff. Peter discussed it with us before he passed away, and it is crucial to a project we're working on. Is this something (b)(6) might be able to track down (I would copy her on this but don't have her email). I assume it's classified, but either or both of us would come running at a moment's notice if it surfaces.

This is time intensive, so any thoughts you have would be much appreciated.

Thanks. Victoria

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We previously referred two documents titled Iraq Policy: Proposal for the New Phase dated December 7-8, 2006 in the above referenced case to the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSD(P)) and the Joint Staff (JS). We recently received responses from OUSD(P) and JS. However, we identified equities relevant to the National Security Council (NSC). Therefore, we forwarded the case to NSC for review. Upon receipt of their response, we will contact you concerning closure of this case. If you have any questions, contact me by e-mail at storer.robert@whs.mil or by phone at 703-696-2197.

Subject: OSD MDR Case 09-M-0049, NSC Case No. 100124

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed documents 1 and 2 in the above referenced case in consultation with the Joint Staff and the National Security Council (NSC) and have declassified them. However, NSC protected document 1 titled Military Commissions dated March 15, 2002 under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5), which authorizes the Executive Branch to withhold information involving certain inter- and intra-agency communications protected by the deliberative process privilege.

NSC stands as the appellate authority. A written appeal must be filed within 60 days explaining the rationale for reversal of the decision. Reference should be made to NSC Case No. 100124. Letters of appeal should be sent to the following address:

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed the enclosed documents in consultation with the Joint Staff (JS), National Security Staff (NSS), and the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy. JS and NSS have no objection to declassification in full and OSD has declassified the document in part. OSD excised information is still properly classified under Executive Order 13526, section 1.4(a),(c), and (d) and is also protected under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6).

- Section 1.4(a) protects information that could be expected to reveal military plans, weapons systems, or operations.
- Section 1.4(c) protects information that could be expected to reveal intelligence activities (including covert action), intelligence sources or methods, or cryptology.
- Section 1.4(d) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources.
- 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) protects information which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of certain individuals.

OSD stands as the appellate authority. A written appeal must be filed within 60 days explaining the rationale for reversal of the decision. Reference should be made to OSD MDR Case 09-M-0050. Letters of appeal should be sent to the following address:

Bob, Secretary Rumsfeld is looking for the more detailed memcons that he would cable home from official visits. These were more detailed than the trip reports to the President that we have so far. We're particularly interested in a meeting with Karimov in Uzbekistan in the first week of Oct. '01.

Any thoughts on who might control these cables?

Thanks. Victoria

Bob and (b)(6) I'm looking for a memo Secretary Rumsfeld sent the President on Sept. 30, 2001 titled "Strategic Thoughts." It forms the basis for the larger "Strategic Guidance" memo he issued to his commanders on Oct. 3, 2001. Doug Feith has the "Strategic Guidance" paper declassified on his book's website, but I can't seem to track "Strategic Thoughts." Do you know if it is in the classified tenure, and if so, can we start the ball rolling on declassification?

Subject: OSD MDR Case 09-M-1808

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed the enclosed document in consultation with the Joint Staff (JS), Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSDP), Department of State (DOS), Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), and the National Security Council (NSC) and have declassified it in part. JS excised information is still properly classified under Executive Order 13526, section 1.4(a). OSD excised information is still properly classified under section 1.4(a),(b),(c), and (d) and is also protected under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5). DOS excised information is still properly classified under section 1.4(a),(c), and (d). CIA excised information is still properly classified under section 1.4(c). NSC excised information is still properly classified under section 1.4(c) and (d) and is also protected under FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5).

- Section 1.4(a) protects information that could be expected to reveal military plans, weapons systems, or operations.
- Section 1.4(b) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign government information.
- Section 1.4(c) protects information that could be expected to reveal intelligence activities (including covert action), intelligence sources or methods, or cryptology.
- Section 1.4(d) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources.
- 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5) authorizes the Executive Branch to withhold information involving certain inter- and intra-agency communications protected by the deliberative process privilege.

OSD stands as the appellate authority and will coordinate any appeals regarding this case. A written appeal must be filed within 60 days explaining the rationale for reversal of the decision. Reference should be made to OSD MDR Case 09-M-1808. Letters of appeal should be sent to the following address:

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We previously referred the document Al Qaeda dated July 22, 2002 to the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSD(P)). We recently received responses from CIA and OUSD(P). However, before we can respond to your request, we must refer this case to the Department of Defense Office of the Executive Secretary (ExecSec). Therefore, we forwarded the case to ExecSec for review. Upon receipt of their response, we will contact you concerning closure of this case. Please direct any questions regarding this case to (b)(6) by phone at (b)(6) or by e-mail at (b)(6)

Subject: OSD MDR Case 09-M-1913

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed the enclosed document in consultation with the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA), the Joint Staff (JS), and the National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency (NGA). DIA has no objection to declassification in full and JS and NGA have no objection to declassification in part. JS excised information is still properly classified under Executive Order 13526, section 1.4(a),(b), and (c) and NGA excised information is still properly classified under section 1.4(a),(c),(e), and (g).

- Section 1.4(a) protects information that could be expected to reveal military plans, weapons systems, or operations.
- Section 1.4(b) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign government information.
- Section 1.4(c) protects information that could be expected to reveal intelligence activities (including covert action), intelligence sources or methods, or cryptology.
- Section 1.4(e) protects information that could be expected to reveal scientific, technological, or economic matters relating to the national security.
- Section 1.4(g) protects information that could be expected to reveal vulnerabilities or capabilities of systems, installations, infrastructures, projects, plans, or protection services relating to the national security.

OSD stands as an appellate authority and will coordinate any appeals regarding this case. A written appeal must be filed within 60 days explaining the rationale for reversal of the decision. Reference should be made to OSD MDR Case 09-M-1913. Letters of appeal should be sent to the following address:

Subject: OSD MDR Case 09-M-2210

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed five documents in the above referenced case in consultation with the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSDP). OUSDP has no objection to declassification in full of documents 2, 3, 4, and 5 and no objection to declassification in part of document 1. CIA has no objection to declassification in full of document 4 and no objection to declassification in part of documents 3 and 5. CIA determined document 1 titled Network dated June 30, 2003 and document 2 titled Saddam Hussein dated December 15, 2003 require continued protection. Therefore, CIA must deny in full the declassification of documents 1 and 2. OSD information is still properly classified under Executive Order 13526, section 1.4(b),(c), and (d) and is also protected under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6). CIA information is still properly classified under section 1.4(c).

- Section 1.4(b) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign government information.
- Section 1.4(c) protects information that could be expected to reveal intelligence activities (including covert action), intelligence sources or methods, or cryptology.
- Section 1.4(d) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources.
- 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) protects information which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of certain individuals.

OSD stands as an appellate authority and will coordinate any appeals regarding this case. A written appeal must be filed within 60 days explaining the rationale for reversal of the decision. Subject: OSD MDR Case 09-M-2213

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed the document Interrogation dated October 1, 2002 in the above referenced case in consultation with the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSD(P)) and determined that it requires continued protection. Therefore, we must deny in full the declassification of the document. CIA information is still properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, section 1.4(c) and OUSD(P) information is still properly classified under section 1.4(a) and (c). Section 1.4(a) protects information that could be expected to reveal military plans, weapons systems, or operations. Section 1.4(c) protects information that could be expected to reveal intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources or methods, or cryptology.

OSD stands as an appellate authority and will coordinate any appeals regarding this case. A written appeal must be filed within 60 days explaining the rationale for reversal of the decision. Subject: OSD MDR Case 09-M-2215

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed the enclosed documents in consultation with the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSD(P)) and the Department of State (DOS). We have declassified in full documents 3, 7, 10, and 11. We have declassified document 12. However, we excised information in document 12 protected under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(2) and (6). We have declassified in part documents 2, 4, 5, 6, 8, 9, and 13. OUSD(P) excised information is still properly classified under Executive Order 13526, section 1.4(b),(c), and (d) and is also protected under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(2) and (6). DOS excised information is still properly classified under section 1.4(b),(c), and (d) and is also protected under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5). DOS determined the document Muqtada al-Sadr dated October 11, 2003 in the above referenced case requires continued protection. Therefore, DOS must deny in full the declassification of the document. The information is still properly classified under section 1.4(d).

- Section 1.4(b) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign government information.
- Section 1.4(c) protects information that could be expected to reveal intelligence activities (including covert action), intelligence sources or methods, or cryptology.
- Section 1.4(d) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources.
- 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(2) protects information which would significantly increase the risk of circumvention of the agency's rules and practices by providing insight into current security measures for sensitive programs.
- 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5) authorizes the Executive Branch to withhold information involving certain inter- and intra-agency communications protected by the deliberative process privilege.
- 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) protects information which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of certain individuals.

Subject: OSD MDR Case 09-M-2465

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We previously referred the document UN Inspections of Iraq dated October 14, 2002 in the above referenced case to the Department of State (DOS) and the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSD(P)). We recently received responses from DOS and OUSD(P). However, before we can respond to your request, we must refer this case to the Department of Defense Office of the Executive Secretary (ExecSec). Therefore, we forwarded the case to ExecSec for review. Upon receipt of their response, we will contact you concerning closure of this case. Please direct any questions regarding this case to (b)(6) by phone at (b)(6) or by e-mail at (b)(6)

Sincerely,

Subject: OSD MDR Case 09-M-2466, DOS Case No. 200909223 DOD1

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed the enclosed document in consultation with the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSDP) and the Department of State (DOS). OUSDP has no objection to declassification in full and DOS has no objection to declassification in part. DOS excised information is still properly classified under Executive Order 13526, section 1.4(b) and (d). Section 1.4(b) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign government information. Section 1.4(d) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources.

DOS stands as the appellate authority. A written appeal must be filed within 60 days explaining the rationale for reversal of the decision. Reference should be made to DOS Case No. 200909223 DOD1. Letters of appeal should be sent to the following address:

Subject: OSD MDR Case 09-M-2468

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed the enclosed document in consultation with the Joint Staff (JS), the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSD(P)) and the Department of State (DOS). JS has no objection to declassification in full and (OUSD(P) and DOS have no objection to declassification in part. OUSD(P) excised information is still properly classified under Executive Order 13526, section 1.4(a),(b), and (d) and is also protected under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(2) and (6). DOS excised information is still properly classified under section 1.4(b) and (d) and is also protected under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5).

- Section 1.4(a) protects information that could be expected to reveal military plans, weapons systems, or operations.
- Section 1.4(b) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign government information.
- Section 1.4(d) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources.
- 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(2) protects information which would significantly increase the risk of circumvention of the agency's rules and practices by providing insight into current security measures for sensitive programs.
- 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5) authorizes the Executive Branch to withhold information involving certain inter- and intra-agency communications protected by the deliberative process privilege.
- 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) protects information which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of certain individuals.

OSD stands as an appellate authority and will coordinate any appeals regarding this case. A written appeal must be filed within 60 days explaining the rationale for reversal of the decision. Subject: OSD MDR Case 09-M-2763

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed the enclosed document in consultation with the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSD(P)) and have declassified it in part. CIA excised information is still properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended, section 1.4(c). OSD excised information is protected under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6). Section 1.4(c) protects information that could be expected to reveal intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources or methods, or cryptology and 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) protects information which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of certain individuals.

OSD stands as an appellate authority and will coordinate any appeals regarding this case. A written appeal must be filed within 60 days explaining the rationale for reversal of the decision. Reference should be made to OSD MDR Case 09-M-2763. Letters of appeal should be sent to the following address:

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed the document Readout of Today's NSC Meeting on Iraq dated January 10, 2005 in the above referenced case in consultation with the Joint Staff (JS), the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSD(P)), and the National Security Council (NSC). NSC and JS have no objection to declassification in full and OUSD(P) has no objection to declassification in part. However, NSC protected the entire document under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5). OSD information is still properly classified under Executive Order 13526, section 1.4(b) and (d) and is also protected under FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5) and (6).

- Section 1.4(b) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign government information.
- Section 1.4(d) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources.
- 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5) authorizes the Executive Branch to withhold information involving certain inter- and intra-agency communications protected by the deliberative process privilege.
- 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) protects information which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of certain individuals.

Subject: OSD MDR Case 09-M-2769

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed four documents regarding North Korea in the above referenced case in consultation with the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), Joint Staff (JS), National Security Council (NSC), and the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSD(P)). CIA, OUSD(P), and NSC have no objection to declassification in full of documents 1 and 2 and no objection to declassification in part of documents 3 and 4. JS determined all four documents require continued protection. Therefore, JS must deny in full the declassification of the documents. NSC protected all four documents under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5). CIA information is still properly classified under Executive Order 13526, section 1.4(c). NSC information is still properly classified under section 1.4(c) and (d). JS information is still properly classified under section 1.4(d). OSD information is still properly classified under section 1.4(a),(c),(d), and (g).

- Section 1.4(a) protects information that could be expected to reveal military plans, weapons systems, or operations.
- Section 1.4(c) protects information that could be expected to reveal intelligence activities (including covert action), intelligence sources or methods, or cryptology.
- Section 1.4(d) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources.
- Section 1.4(g) protects information that could be expected to reveal vulnerabilities or capabilities of systems, installations, infrastructures, projects, plans, or protection services relating to the national security.
- 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5) authorizes the Executive Branch to withhold information involving certain inter- and intra-agency communications protected by the deliberative process privilege.

Subject: OSD MDR Case 09-M-2777

Dear Mr. Secretary:

The Joint Staff (JS) and the National Security Council (NSC) have reviewed a document dated June 29, 2005 in the above referenced case and have declassified it. However, JS excised information protected under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5) and (6) and NSC protected the entire document under 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5).

- 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5) authorizes the Executive Branch to withhold information involving certain inter- and intra-agency communications protected by the deliberative process privilege.
- 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) protects information which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of certain individuals.

OSD stands as an appellate authority and will coordinate any appeals regarding this case. A written appeal must be filed within 60 days explaining the rationale for reversal of the decision. Reference should be made to OSD MDR Case 09-M-2777. Letters of appeal should be sent to the following address:

Subject: OSD MDR Case 09-M-2778

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed the document Principals Committee discussion on Iraq dated June 30, 2005 in the above referenced case in consultation with the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSDP), Department of State (DOS), and National Security Council (NSC). OUSDP and NSC have no objection to declassification in part and DOS determined that the document requires continued protection. Therefore, DOS must deny in full the declassification of the document. NSC protected the entire document under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5). DOS information is still properly classified under Executive Order 13526, section 1.4(d). OSD information is still properly classified under section 1.4(b) and (d) and is also protected under FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(2) and (5). NSC information is still properly classified under section 1.4(d).

- Section 1.4(b) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign government information.
- Section 1.4(d) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources.
- 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(2) protects information which would significantly increase the risk of circumvention of the agency's rules and practices by providing insight into current security measures for sensitive programs.
- 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5) authorizes the Executive Branch to withhold information involving certain inter- and intra-agency communications protected by the deliberative process privilege.

OSD stands as the appellate authority and will coordinate any appeals regarding this case. A written appeal must be filed within 60 days explaining the rationale for reversal of the decision. Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed the enclosed document in consultation with the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSDP) and have declassified it in part. A portion of the document is illegible. Therefore, the excised information is still properly classified under Executive Order 13526, section 1.4(a) through (h).

- Section 1.4(a) protects information that could be expected to reveal military plans, weapons systems, or operations.
- Section 1.4(b) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign government information.
- Section 1.4(c) protects information that could be expected to reveal intelligence activities (including covert action), intelligence sources or methods, or cryptology.
- Section 1.4(d) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources.
- Section 1.4(e) protects information that could be expected to reveal scientific, technological, or economic matters relating to the national security.
- Section 1.4(f) protects information that could be expected to reveal United States Government programs for safeguarding nuclear materials or facilities.
- Section 1.4(g) protects information that could be expected to reveal vulnerabilities or capabilities of systems, installations, infrastructures, projects, plans, or protection services relating to the national security.
- Section 1.4(h) protects information that could be expected to reveal the development, production, or use of weapons of mass destruction.

OSD stands as the appellate authority. A written appeal must be filed within 60 days explaining the rationale for reversal of the decision. Reference should be made to OSD MDR Case 09-M-2780. Letters of appeal should be sent to the following address:

AUG 31 2010

We have reviewed six documents regarding Syria in the above referenced case in consultation with the Department of State (DOS), Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSDP), and the National Security Council (NSC). CIA has no objection to declassification in full of document 1 and no objection to declassification in part of documents 2 through 6. DOS and OSD have no objection to declassification in part of documents 1 through 5 and determined document 6 requires protection. Therefore, DOS and OSD must deny in full the declassification of document 6. NSC has no objection to declassification in part of all documents. However, NSC protected all documents under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5). CIA information is still properly classified under Executive Order 13526, section 1.4(c). DOS information is still properly classified under section 1.4(c) and (d). OSD information is still properly classified under section 1.4(a),(b),(c), and (d). NSC information is still properly classified under section 1.4(c) and (d) and is also protected under FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5).

- Section 1.4(a) protects information that could be expected to reveal military plans, weapons systems, or operations.
- Section 1.4(b) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign government information.
- Section 1.4(c) protects information that could be expected to reveal intelligence activities (including covert action), intelligence sources or methods, or cryptology.
- Section 1.4(d) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources.

Subject: OSD MDR Case 09-M-2921

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed the document Strategy to Marginalize dated March 31, 2003 in the above referenced case in consultation with the Department of State (DOS) and the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSD(P)) and determined that it requires continued protection. Therefore, we must deny in full the declassification of the document. DOS information is still properly classified under Executive Order 13526, section 1.4(d) and OUSD(P) information is still properly classified under section 1.4(b) and (d). Section 1.4(b) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign government information. Section 1.4(d) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources.

OSD stands as an appellate authority and will coordinate any appeals regarding this case. A written appeal must be filed within 60 days explaining the rationale for reversal of the decision. Reference should be made to OSD MDR Case 09-M-2921. Letters of appeal should be sent to the following address:

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed the document Taiwan dated April 2004 in the above referenced case in consultation with the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSD(P)) and the National Security Council (NSC) and have no objection to declassification in part. However, NSC protected the entire document under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5). OSD information is still properly classified under Executive Order 13526, section 1.4(a),(b),(c),(d) and is also protected under FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5). NSC information is still properly classified under section 1.4(c) and (d).

- Section 1.4(a) protects information that could be expected to reveal military plans, weapons systems, or operations.
- Section 1.4(b) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign government information.
- Section 1.4(c) protects information that could be expected to reveal intelligence activities (including covert action), intelligence sources or methods, or cryptology.
- Section 1.4(d) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources.
- 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5) authorizes the Executive Branch to withhold information involving certain inter- and intra-agency communications protected by the deliberative process privilege.

Subject: OSD MDR Case 09-M-3073

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed the enclosed document in consultation with the Department of State (DOS) and the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSD(P)) and have declassified it in part. DOS excised information is still properly classified under Executive Order 13526, section 1.4(d). OUSD(P) excised information is still properly classified under section 1.4(b) and (d) and is also protected under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(2).

- Section 1.4(b) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign government information.
- Section 1.4(d) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources.
- 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(2) protects information which would significantly increase the risk of circumvention of the agency's rules and practices by providing insight into current security measures for sensitive programs

OSD stands as the appellate authority and will coordinate any appeals regarding this case. A written appeal must be filed within 60 days explaining the rationale for reversal of the decision. Reference should be made to OSD MDR Case 09-M-3073. Letters of appeal should be sent to the following address:

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed the document NSC Meeting on Iraq dated January 19, 2006 in the above referenced case in consultation with the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSD(P)) and the National Security Council (NSC). NSC has no objection to declassification in full and OUSD(P) has no objection to declassification in part. However, NSC protected the entire document under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5). OSD information is still properly classified under Executive Order 13526, section 1.4(d) and is also protected under FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5).

- Section 1.4(d) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources.
- 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5) authorizes the Executive Branch to withhold information involving certain inter- and intra-agency communications protected by the deliberative process privilege.

Subject: OSD MDR Case 10-M-0452

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed the enclosed document in consultation with the Joint Staff and the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy and have declassified it in part. The excised information is still properly classified under Executive Order 13526, section 1.4(d), which protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources.

OSD stands as the appellate authority. A written appeal must be filed within 60 days explaining the rationale for reversal of the decision. Reference should be made to OSD MDR Case 10-M-0452. Letters of appeal should be sent to the following address:

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We previously referred the document Iraq – Illustrative New Courses of Action dated November 6, 2006 in the above referenced case to the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSD(P)). We recently received a response from OUSD(P). However, we identified equities relevant to the Joint Staff (JS). Therefore, we forwarded the case to JS for review. Upon receipt of their response, we will contact you concerning closure of this case. If you have any questions, contact me by e-mail at storer.robert@whs.mil or by phone at 703-696-2197.

Bob,

In Doug's papers over at NDU is a memo from DR to Cheney, Powell, Rice and Tenet. It is dated on or around July 1, 2002 and is about organizing Iraqi leaders post-Saddam. We have scoured DR's papers and the NSC records in our (your) possession. It is not there. Can you have someone go over to NDU to get the document?

Subject: OSD MDR Case 10-M-1025-A1

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We have reviewed the enclosed document in consultation with the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy and have declassified it in part. The excised information is still properly classified under Executive Order 13526, section 1.4(d) and is also protected under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(2). Section 1.4(d) protects information that could be expected to reveal foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources. 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(2) protects information which would significantly increase the risk of circumvention of the agency's rules and practices by providing insight into current security measures for sensitive programs.

OSD stands as the appellate authority. A written appeal must be filed within 60 days explaining the rationale for reversal of the decision. Reference should be made to OSD MDR Case 10-M-1025-A1. Letters of appeal should be sent to the following address:

Dear (b)(6)

Over the last two years, we have received something on the order of a few dozen documents that were declassified in person by Bob Storer. Bob handed these to us, not via mail. This process ended nearly a year ago.

Over the last twelve months, the trickle of documents has dried up.

I have confirmed with Victoria and our office that no more than a few correspondences have been received in the last year, most of which have been letters about FOIA (2 Nov 09 and 10 Nov 09) and one letter about a denied document called Power Projection (21 Jan 10). I know of no declassified documents that have been received by mail, as Mr. Langerman said was the protocol in his 26 Feb email.

On your question of why we raise the issue now, we have waited several months than we would have otherwise, as we understood that the MDR authority was being transitioned from Bob Storer to your office. With your and Mr. Langerman's new involvement in the process, we wanted to see if there was any progress or acceleration in the long list of documents we are waiting for before we inquired into the status.

It would be helpful if we had a list of the titles and dates of the documents -- in all categories, closed, open, etc -- so we can search our records and cross-check them with your list.

Best,
Keith

Have you confirmed with Mr. Rumsfeld that he has not received any declassified documents from DoD over the past two years for use in writing his memoirs? If that were the case, I doubt that he would have waited two years to question why none were forthcoming.

Subject: RE: SecDef Declassification Review

Mr. Langerman,

The address below is correct. We have received several correspondence from your office about FOIA requests and one letter about a denied request, but not to my knowledge, any cleared documents. If we could have copies of anything from the closed cases sent again, that would be most helpful.

Best,
Keith

Keith,

As the cases were completed, we send our responses out by U.S. mail. That said, we have been sending responses in this MDR effort to the address below. Pls let me know if this is correct. If you cannot locate them, we could go back through case files and provide copies of those responses from the closed cases.

Meanwhile, we keep pushing on in the review effort. Let me know how we can best help you with the closed case responses.

Mr. Langerman,

I appreciate the information.

Of the closed documents, particularly the full and partial release documents, how do we obtain those?

Are there any time frames you can give us on the other 48 and 79 documents?

Best,
Keith

Mr. Urbahn,

We continue to strive to accomplish the reviews that fall under this request and the MDR. I am sure you can appreciate the complexity of review that some require. In the numbers that follow, for tracking purposes most of these cases are comprised of one document (though the page count for each document varies).

Case status totals to date are:

Closed: 60 of which 31 granted in full, 18 partial release, 8 transferred to FOIA office for release under FOIA, 2 denied, and one was not a SECDEF era document responsive to this request.

In process in DoD: 48 documents

Referred to other agencies for review: 79 documents

We are aware that you have time constraints and hope to accommodate as much as possible.

I trust this is helpful.

Dear Mr. Langerman,

As one of the staff helping Mr. Rumsfeld with his forthcoming book, I am writing to see if we can get some clarity on our ongoing declassification requests for documents related to his tenure as Secretary of Defense (2001-06). We originally made these requests to Mr. Robert Storer at WHS, but he informs us he is no longer managing the process and that we need to inquire with your office. Given our publication schedule we need to get resolution on these pending requests, some of which are twelve to eighteen months old, or we will not be able to use the documents.

If it would be helpful, Victoria Coates (who met with you last year to discuss the clearance of the manuscript) and I would be happy to discuss this issue with you on the phone or come meet with you. We appreciate any light you can shed on this matter.

Sincerely,

Keith Urbahn

Dear (b)(6)

We have completed a thorough review of our review of our records to compare what we have to list of MDR requests you helpfully provided.

As you will see with the attached document, we are missing a number of the closed cases (around half). If the document name is in red text, then it appears that we do not have a copy. Green means we do have a copy. Yellow means there was not enough information to locate the document.

How might we obtain copies of what we are missing?

I will be in Rosslyn Monday morning to review some documents with Bob Storer around 9 am. Would you be available around then to discuss these MDR requests?

Thanks so much.

Have a good weekend.

Best,
Keith

Dear Keith,

Attached is a spreadsheet with the status and titles of all the documents we've processed for Mr. Rumsfeld under MDR. Please let me know which of the 64 closed ones you can't verify you've received, and we'll provide you with copies of our responses.

Dear Keith,

We'll provide you with the list of released documents and pending cases as you requested. You can then determine which ones you have and which ones we are still processing. If you're missing any of the released documents, we will provide copies of them for you.

Sincerely,

Dear (b)(6)

Over the last two years, we have received something on the order of a few dozen documents that were declassified in person by Bob Storer. Bob handed these to us, not via mail. This process ended nearly a year ago.

Over the last twelve months, the trickle of documents has dried up.

I have confirmed with Victoria and our office that no more than a few correspondences have been received in the last year, most of which have been letters about FOIA (2 Nov 09 and 10 Nov 09) and one letter about a denied document called Power Projection (21 Jan 10). I know of no declassified documents that have been received by mail, as Mr. Langerman said was the protocol in his 26 Feb email.

On your question of why we raise the issue now, we have waited several months than we would have otherwise, as we understood that the MDR authority was being transitioned from Bob Storer to your office. With your and Mr. Langerman's new involvement in the process, we wanted to see if there was any progress or acceleration in the long list of documents we are waiting for before we inquired into the status.

It would be helpful if we had a list of the titles and dates of the documents -- in all categories, closed, open, etc -- so we can search our records and cross-check them with your list.

Best,
Keith

Keith,

Have you confirmed with Mr. Rumsfeld that he has not received any declassified documents from DoD over the past two years for use in writing his memoirs? If that were the case, I doubt that he would have waited two years to question why none were forthcoming.

We have done some research and are unclear how none of the closed cases seem to have reached you or just where they might have ended up. I have asked (b)(6) in my office to work with you on this.

We did receive the correspondence of April 23 and the documents included. The mailing address is still 1718 M St NW #366, though our actual office is on L St. Any mail to M St should not have been forwarded.

Best,
Keith

Keith,

Did you receive our letter of April 23, 2010, that included the replacement copies of 60 previously released documents? A letter we mailed to you on May 11 was returned to us with the annotation "FWD TIME EXP" and a new address for DHR Holdings LLC. Have you changed your M Street address to one on L Street?

Regards,

Dear Mr. Secretary:

This is to acknowledge that this Office has received a referral of three unclassified documents (OSD MDR Cases 09-M-2917, 09-M-2920 and 09-M-2924) from the Records and Declassification Division, Washington Headquarters Services. Mr. Robert Storer, Chief, Records and Declassification Division, relates that these documents are responsive to a request that you submitted under the Mandatory Declassification Review (MDR) program. The MDR program is governed by the provisions of E.O. 12958, as amended, and applies only to classified records. As the documents are unclassified, they would not qualify for review for public release under the MDR program. However, the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 USC § 552, provides for public access for agency records regardless of classification.

Mr. Storer indicated that you wish to invoke the FOIA in regards to these three documents. Your request has been assigned FOIA case number 09-F-1785. If you have any questions concerning the processing of these documents you may contact Ms. Mary Wahling at (703) 696-3233 or by email at: mary.wahling@whs.mil.

Sincerely,

Paul J. Jacobsmeyer

Dear Mr. Secretary:

This is in response to a referral of sixteen unclassified documents from the Records and Declassification Division (RDD), Washington Headquarters Service (OSD MDR Case 09-M-2218). Mr. Robert Storer, Chief, RDD, indicated that you wished us to review these documents under the Freedom of Information Act. Enclosed are the results of a review.

Brig. Gen. James M. "Mike" Holmes, USAF, Principal Director and Initial Denial Authority for, Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Middle East Policy, has determined that the excised information in the enclosed 16 documents is exempt from release pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(2) which pertains solely to the internal rules and practices of the agency, and would allow circumvention of an agency rule, policy, or statute, thereby impeding the agency in the conduct of its mission; and 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) which pertains to information the release of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of individuals.

If you are not satisfied with this action, you may appeal to the appellate authority, the Director of Administration and Management, Office of the Secretary of Defense, by writing directly to the Defense Freedom of Information Policy Office, Attn: Mr. James Hogan, 1155 Defense Pentagon, Washington, D.C. 20301-1155. Your appeal should be postmarked within 60 calendar days of the date of this letter, should cite to case number 09-FM-0018, and should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

Sincerely,

Paul J. Jacobsmeyer
Chief

Dear Mr. Secretary:

This is in response to a referral of nine unclassified documents from the Records and Declassification Division (RDD), Washington Headquarters Service (OSD MDR Case 09-M-2749). Mr. Robert Storer, Chief, RDD, indicated that you wished us to review these documents under the Freedom of Information Act. Enclosed are the results of the review.

Mr. Michael L. Bruhn, an Initial Denial Authority for the Department of Defense Executive Secretary, has determined that the excised information in document #6 is exempt from release pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) which pertains to information the release of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of individuals, and the excised information in document #8 is exempt from release pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(2) which pertains solely to the internal rules and practices of the agency, and would allow circumvention of an agency rule, policy, or statute, thereby impeding the agency in the conduct of its mission; and 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6).

If you are not satisfied with this action, you may appeal to the appellate authority, the Director of Administration and Management, Office of the Secretary of Defense, by writing directly to the Defense Freedom of Information Policy Office, Attn: Mr. James Hogan, 1155 Defense Pentagon, Washington, D.C. 20301-1155.
